

To Whom it may Concern;

I have read in the newspaper that the strength of the "no-call" list in Wisconsin is being threatened. Please, please do not tamper with the status quo! I have enjoyed the peace and quiet of evenings at home without the invasion of unwanted phone calls!...Perhaps the federal format should be strengthened to match ours? It would seem that the banking industry wants parity across state lines and that would be a solution! Thanks for listening.

Susan M. Gambetta